Thanksgiving – 11 Christmas -40 New Years 47

" No Fellowship Dinner This Month "

Proverbs 31:21

Planning And Care For Family In Cold Weather.

She is unafraid of winter's effect on her household, because all of them are warmly clothed.

LET US BE THANKFUL FOR THE HERBACEOUS FOODS ALONG WITH TURKEY, HAM, AND TOOTHSOME CONFECTIONER FOR OUR FAMILIES AND GOD'S BLESSINGS

Memorize – Col 3:17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

" Evil is always possible, and goodness is eternally difficult."

1. Enjoy the season with family and friends Fa La La La La La La La Laing
2. EFFERVESCENT – Fizzy, Overflowing, & Simmering!

Pete/Steve – Granddaughter. Sadie, signed 4 yr soccer scholarship with ORU. Amber- I can apply pressure to my foot now (no more hobbling or walking on its side which ended up pulling a few stitches loose) but it'll take a few weeks for the skin to build to its original strength since the cut was to the fat layer and beneath a major joint. So Happy to be mobile again! Ares is surprising us with his ability to rattle off some multiplication tables and some addition and subtraction. We will be going to Ohio at the beginning of next month for my grandma's funeral/memorial. Kathy - Andii & Lucy go back to work this Wed. Lucy is 4 months old & has been held 24/7 since birth. Only time Andii doesn't hold her, Geoff does. I don't know who it will be harder on. Brewers - Not so much a college trip but games. You always have a college scout popping in to these events. We ended up 4th overall not sure total number teams. We have one last tournament in BA next week and done for the fall. She will attend some camps at colleges periodically as they put out the invites. Crosses Gave- GPJ & John Boy found Road repair men, highline men, school teacher, & many others who received a cross while listening to hear Gods message of LOVE!

THANKSGIVING

Grandma always insists on cooking the turkey "the old-fashioned way," which apparently means starting at 5 a.m., talking to it like it's a guest, and basting it every ten minutes "so it feels loved." This year, she accidentally left her phone inside the turkey while checking a recipe. We didn't notice until halfway through dinner when the turkey started vibrating and playing her ringtone — "I Will Survive." Meanwhile, Uncle Bob brought his famous "mystery casserole," which he swears is a family tradition. Nobody knows what's in it, but it's always suspiciously heavy. When asked, he just winked and said, "Let's just say it's festive." The dog refused to eat it, which is how we knew it was truly mysterious.

Grateful Hearts - The candles flicker, warm and bright, Families gather, hearts alight. Laughter, stories, blessings shared, A feast of love shows how we cared. Pumpkin pies and autumn leaves, Moments treasured, joy achieves. Thankful for both big and small, Grateful hearts embrace them all.

Meanwhile, a Green Bay, Wisconsin, man married a woman named Packer and took her last name.

Things a mother should know: how to comfort a son without exactly saying Daddy was wrong.

Dining off the contents of the family cooking pot which was kept hot over the fire and into which everything that 'had gone to pot' was put, was always something of a lottery. Taking 'pot luck' now is taking a chance, in the same way that those sitting down to eat what was in the pot had no idea what to expect.

THINK YOU'VE FIGURED IT OUT? OU KNOW NOTHING.

After France fell to the Germans during World War II, the Nazis forced the carmaker Citroen to make trucks for their war machine. Citroen's president agreed, albeit with a slight alteration to the vehicles. He quietly had the notch on each dipstick moved down, which meant the Germans thought the trucks needed less oil to run than they actually did. This led to trucks breaking down, often in battle.

WHAT DO FAITHFUL CHRISTIANS DO?

The New Testament is filled with the duties of those who are in Christ. The religion of Christ is a doing/working religion. It is not passive. It is active. When any Christian fails to be actively involved in living and doing the Lord's will, they have died spiritually "But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? ...Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.... For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also" (James 2:20, 24, 26).

What are some of the things faithful Christians are to do? They are to help the helpless (widows and orphans). "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world" (James 1:27). To "visit" means to "to look upon in order to help or to benefit, to look after, provide for."

They are to "Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not...Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men" (vs.11-14, 17). Faithful Christians are the best employees. They give an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

Faithful Christians are to be kind, tenderhearted and forgiving (Ephesians 4:32). Husbands love their wives, show them honor and provide for their families (Ephesians 5:25; I Peter 3:7; I Timothy 5:8). Wives are in subjection to their own husbands, honor and respect them and care for the children (I Peter 3:1; I Timothy 5:14). They have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness (Ephesians 5:11). They are exhorted to exhibit no bitterness, wrath, anger or evil speaking (Ephesians 4:29-31).

The faithful seek the kingdom (church) first (Matthew 6:33) and think on things that are true, honest, just, pure and lovely (Philippians 4:8). They always press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3:14).

WHAT DO YOU DO EVERY DAY?
