Whiskers & Glow

A pumpkin sits, round and bright,
A cat curls near, in autumn light.
Golden eyes meet candle's gleam,
A purring spell, a harvest dream.

People, my concern is not whether God is on our side; my greatest concern is to be on God's side, for God is always right - Abraham Lincoln

Sharon - Little under the weather but still working to heal. Raymond - Still nauseated and medications or home remedies haven't helped. If you don't like fall, you can leaf me alone Shella - I do admit that I wasn't feeling well Saturday. But I do think it was an allergic response to brush hogging...so nose was running terribly yesterday. My head hurt. I started getting sick at tummy from all the drainage. Then I lost my voice last night. Coughed and running nose and no sleep. Think I probably dehydrated, so symptoms worsened to chills and muscle cramps, and dizziness and so on. But the party was awesome with all my girls and their kids present and Ben too! Nicole hosted and made white chicken chili and organic cupcakes. The company and food were so wonderful! All the grandkids wanted to stay the night...but their moms said I was too sick. It was very sad and they cried and cried. John Boy - Dizziness from heart. Dale/Waid - Building deer stands with bad instructions. Yankee ingenuity save the day, and we have one more coming up. I'm just here for the fall decorations and pumpkin spice lattes. Debbie - Knees been hurting but she's thankful she has ability to walk. Nora/Jack will be taller than her and will always be precious in my sight. Abby & Baby Millie - Who get to hold Millie is sort of a joint effort if you can wrestle her from Carlee. MESS WITH THE BULL

YA GET THE HORNS This is a true account recorded in the Police Log of Sarasota, Florida: An elderly Florida lady did her shopping and, upon returning to her car, found four males in the act of leaving with her vehicle. She dropped her shopping bags and drew her handgun, proceeding to scream at the top of her lungs, "I have a gun, and I know how to use it! GET OUT OF THE CAR!" The four men didn't wait for a second threat. They got out and ran like mad. The lady, somewhat shaken, then proceeded to load her shopping bags into the back of the car and got into the driver's seat. She was so shaken that she could not get her key into the ignition. She tried and tried, and then she realized why. It was for the same reason she had wondered why there was a football, a Frisbee, and two 12-packs of beer in the front seat. A few minutes later, she found her own car parked four or five spaces farther down. She loaded her bags into the car and drove to the police station to report her mistake. The sergeant to whom she told the story couldn't stop laughing. He pointed to the other end of the counter, where four pale men were reporting a carjacking by a mad, elderly woman described as white, less than five feet tall, glasses, curly white hair, and carrying a large handgun.

No charges were filed. Moral of the story? If you're going to have a senior moment...make it memorable! We hate whom we have

LARGEST PUMPKIN

"People go to a football game today and shout their heads off, or go to a circus and cheer at after act. They become enthusiastic about everything conceivable, but when it comes to spiritual matters they think we are supposed to become sober and wear black, and never have a good time or enjoy a religious event."

"A good laugh heals a lot of hurts."

My friends and I had a scare on a hotel elevator. We got on at the 12th floor and pushed the button to go to the lobby. The elevator went down but then jolted back up a few floors, then down and back up, before finally settling on the lobby floor. As we staggered off, my frazzled friend Lisa told the man waiting, "Watch out, this elevator keeps going up and down!"

As the man got on, he shot right back, "Isn't that what it's supposed to do?"

"Mirth is God's medicine. Everybody ought to bathe in it. Grim care, moroseness, anxiety—all this rust of life—ought to be scoured off by the oil of mirth."

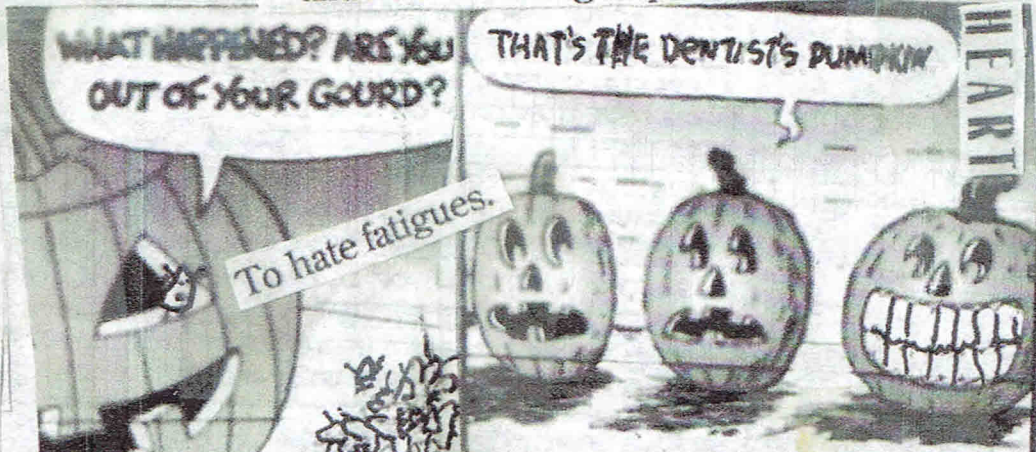

"PLEASE HELP ME, FATHER! FRED WATCHES FOOTBALL ON TV ALL DAY LONG AND I CAN'T GET HIM TO STOP..."

"SEND HIM OVER AND WE'LL TALK."

He who has health has hope, and he who has hope has everything. HEALTH Hatred comes from the heart; contempt from the head; and neither feeling is quite within our control.

HOW DOES "WORKS" FIT WITH, "WHOSOEVER SHALL CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD SHALL BE SAVED?"

This quotation is found in Acts 2:21 and Romans 10:13. Many people quote these verses in an attempt to "prove" that all one has to do to be saved is simply say "Lord save me," or say "come into my heart and be my personal savior." But there is far more involved than simply saying these words. You will be lost if that is all you do!

To "call upon the name of the Lord" is to call upon him by doing—obeying—what he commands. The phrase is a figure of speech (synecdoche) implying all that one must do to be a disciple of the Lord. When the people on Pentecost cried out "what shall we do?" (Acts 2:37), they were asking, "how shall we call upon the name of the Lord and be saved?" Peter describes what is involved in calling on the Lord's name in Acts 2:38, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins." Both repenting and being baptized are done "in the name of Jesus Christ" i.e., by his authority. This is what Saul of Tarsus was commanded to do in order to have forgiveness of sins. "Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord" (Acts 22:16). He was to obey the Gospel by repenting of his sins and being baptized for the forgiveness of his sins, "calling on the name of the Lord." This was the process by which he called upon the Lord (i.e., obedience).

The context of Romans 10:13 makes it plain that in order to "call upon the name of the Lord," both "hearing" the Gospel and "obeying" the Gospel are involved. "But they have not all obeyed the gospel" (v.16), i.e., they have not all "called upon the name of the Lord."

Every act of obedience: faith (John 8:24), repentance (Acts 2:38), confession (Romans 10:10), and water baptism (Mark 16:16), is performed "calling on the name of the Lord." From the very moment we believe until the day we depart this earth, we call upon the name of the Lord (1 Cor. 1:2; 2 Tim. 2:19). We must, by faith, obey his word. His name is to be recognized in every act we perform (Col. 3:17). In so doing, we are "calling upon his name."
