Habit is a habit and not to be flung out of the window by any man but coaxed downstairs a step at a time.

It seems, in fact, as though the second half of a man's life is made up of nothing but the habits he has accumulated during the first half.

Habits are first cobwebs, then cables.

You Did It!

The Scouts are saving aluminum cans, bottles and other items to be recycled.

Proceeds will be used to cripple children.

The preacher would appreciate it if the ladies of the congregation would lend him their electric girdles for the pancake breakfast next Sunday morning.

Come out and watch us kill Christ the King.

The peacemaking meeting scheduled for today has been canceled due to a conflict.

Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our community. Smile at someone who is hard to love. Say "Hell" to someone who doesn't care much about you.

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church.

So ends a friendship that began in their school days.

Pedigree

When a genealogist drew up a family tree, the ancestral lines of descent were marked by an arrow-like symbol. To some this looked like the foot of a crane, which in Old French was rendered pie de gru. In time the spelling was altered and the word was absorbed into the English language where it came to refer to the family tree in general.

"Yes, sir." The recruit replied. So the lieutenant asked the soldier if he had joined the Army to serve his country or to complain about the food. The recruit explained, "Sir, I joined the U.S. Army to serve my country—not to eat it!"

Attendant confronted a recruit and said, "I hear you're complaining about a little sand in your soup."

WHEN DID THE "CHURCH OF CHRIST" BEGIN?

Acts chapter two has been called the "hub of the Bible" because it is there that the Old Testament prophecies concerning the kingdom/church are fulfilled. Prior to Acts 2, the kingdom/church is always spoken of as not yet established and after Acts 2 it is always spoken of as being in existence.

Jesus promised to build the "church" and referred to it as the "kingdom" (Matthew 16:18-19). Therefore, John the Baptist didn't build it. His mission was to prepare the way for its establishment, but he was not the builder himself. He died before it was founded.

Jesus said in Mark 9:1, "there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power." Note these two points: 1) some to whom Jesus was speaking would live to see the kingdom established, 2) they would see it come "with power." In Acts 1:8 Jesus told the apostles, "ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you...." Note these points: 1) the kingdom was to come "with power" (Mark 9:1); 2) "power" would come with the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8); 3) therefore, the kingdom would come when the Holy Spirit came. In other words, to determine when the "Holy Spirit" came is to learn when "power" came, and to see when "power" came is to learn when the "kingdom/church" came.

Acts 2 begins with the 12 apostles in Jerusalem. They were waiting to be "endued with 'power' from on high" (Luke 24:49). "And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost..." (Acts 2:4). The Holy Spirit came on Pentecost "with power" which enabled them to speak in languages they had never learned. The Holy Spirit came with "power." The church/kingdom was to come with "power." Therefore, the church of Christ came with the coming of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost we read about in Acts 2.

The Gospel was preached for the first time in Acts 2 which fulfilled the prophecies. This was during the lifetime of the disciples (Mark 9:1). Men and women repented and were baptized for the forgiveness of sins. They were added to the Lord's church (Acts 2:38,41).

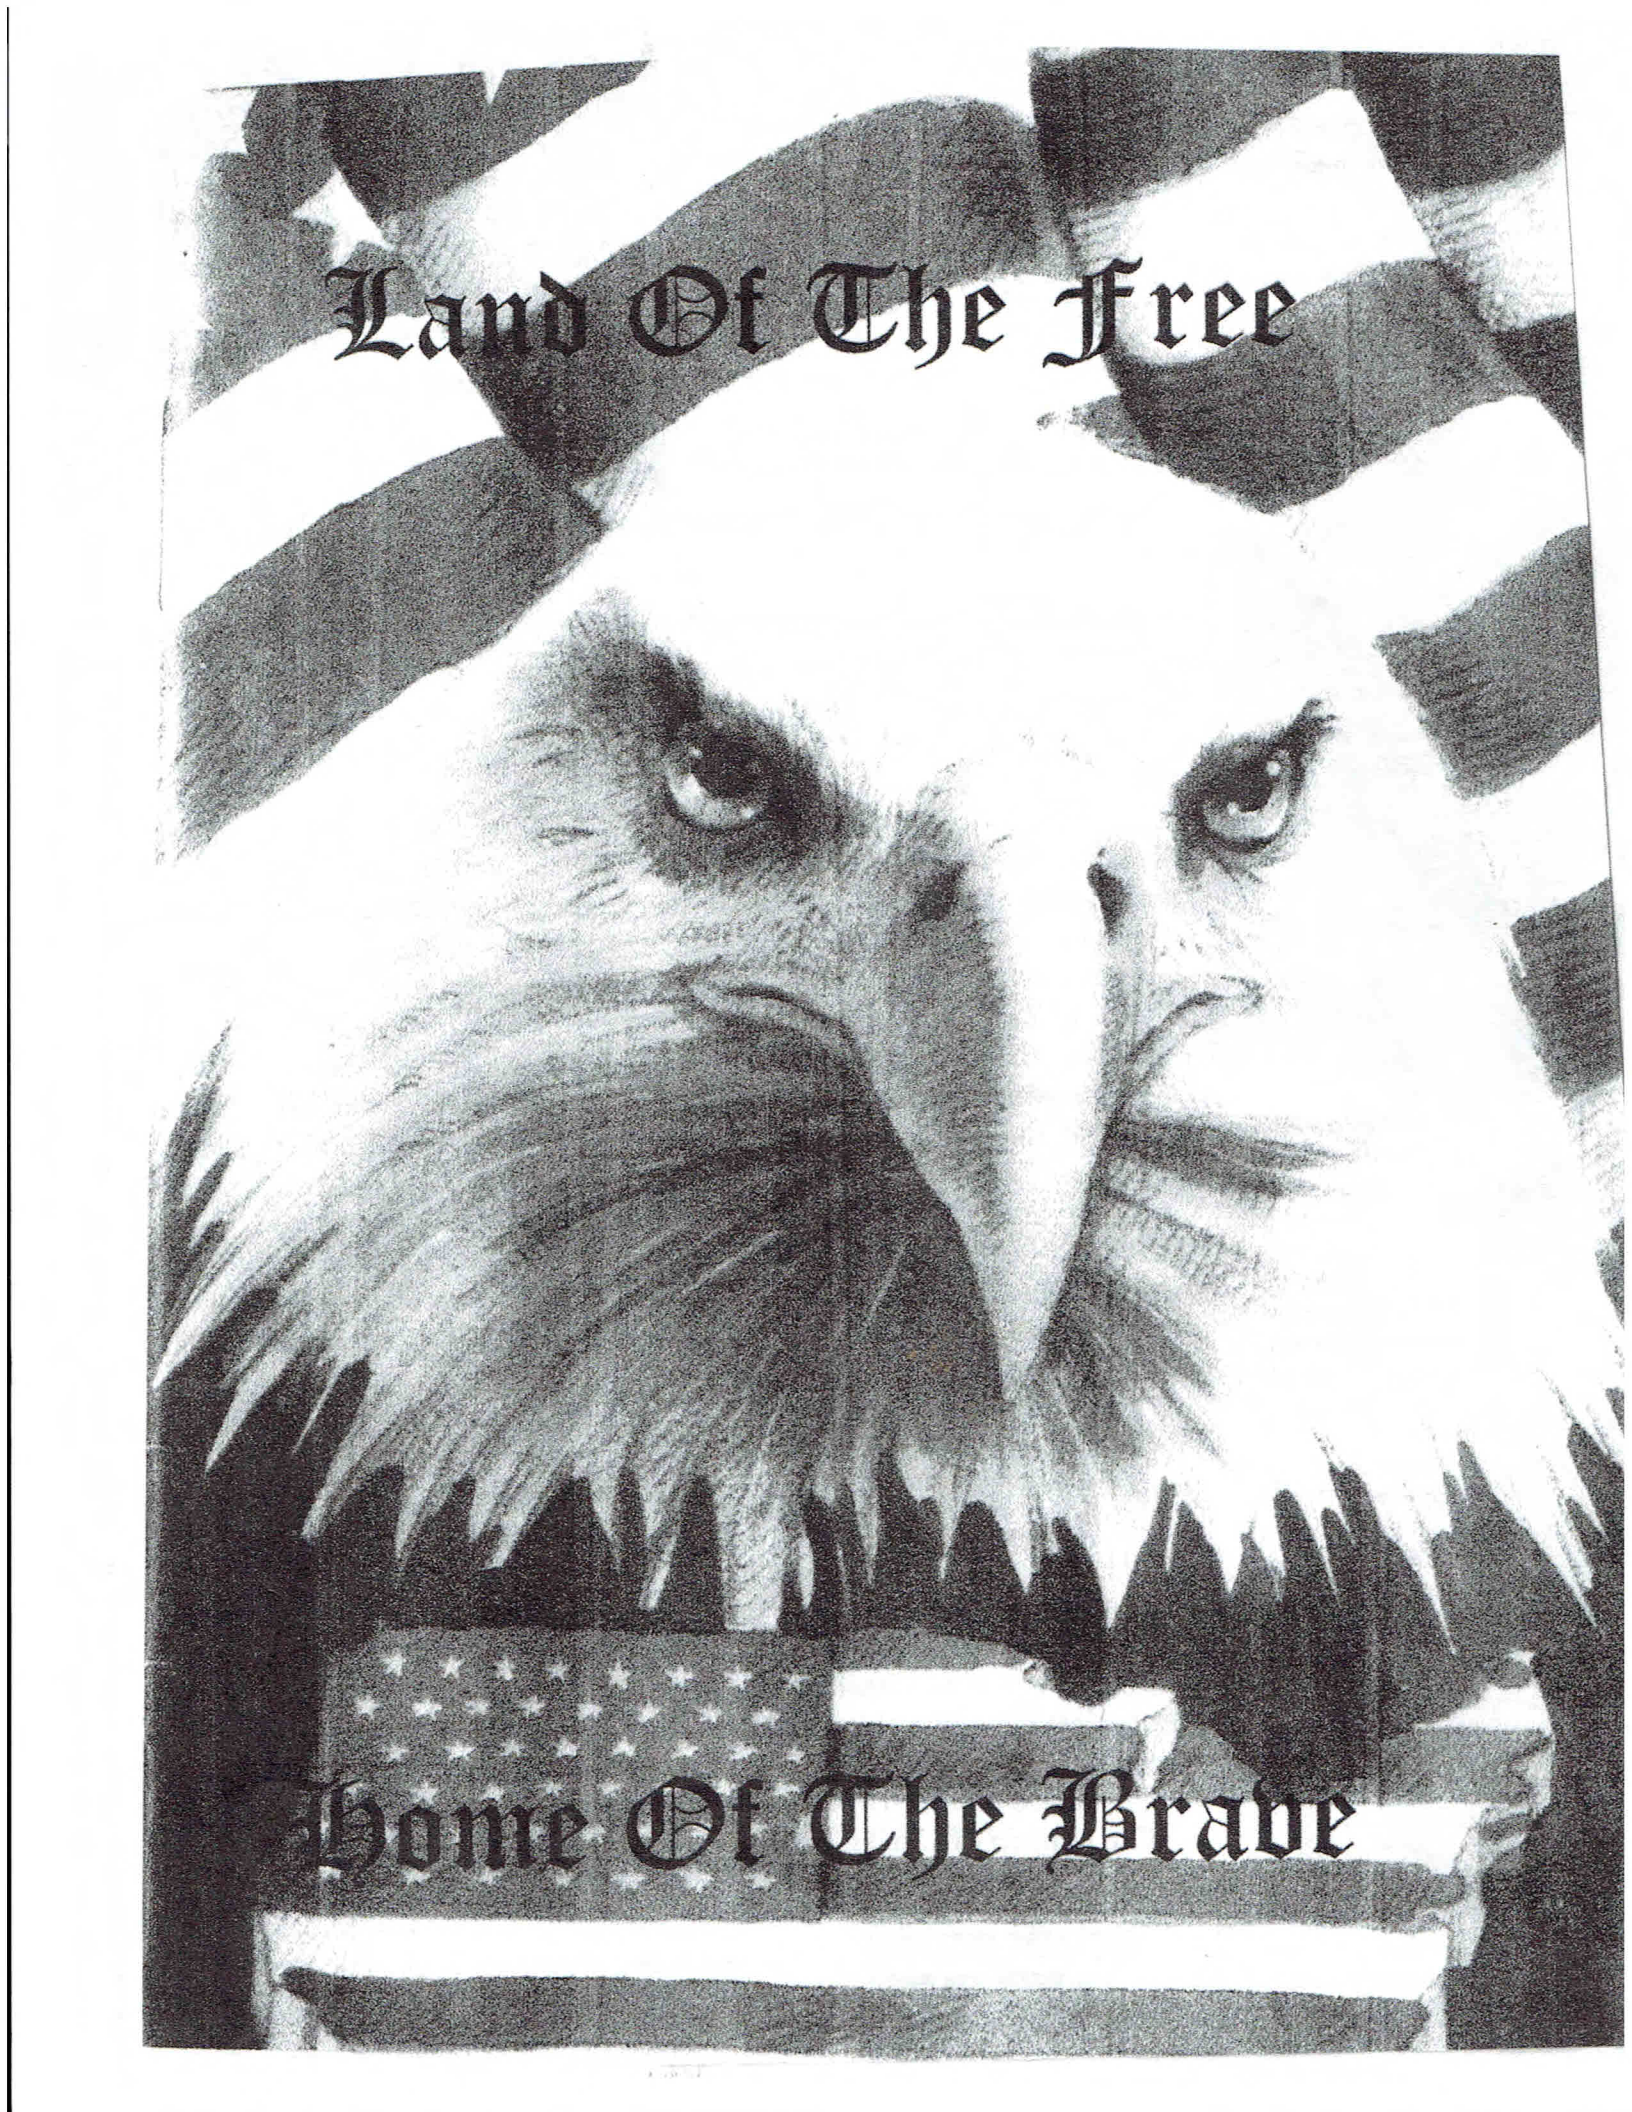

The church of Christ began on Pentecost recorded in Acts 2:1-4.

The game of cribbage, in which players build up their score by moving pegs around the board, gives rise to this expression. 'Pegging away' implies steady, persistent application to a task, often in the face of set-backs.

THIS IS THE DAY!
HAPPINESS
 Happiness is the only thing that multiplies by division. A poor man can be happy, but a happy man isn't poor. We have no more right to consume happiness without producing it than to consume wealth without producing it.
