No one comes to the Father except through me."

The atmosphere was buzzing with excitement. As Mike carried a tray of appetizers towards the living room, their overenthusiastic dog, Buddy, raced past him, accidentally knocking the tray out of his hands. The room descended into chaos as appetizers flew through the air, landing in unexpected places. The guests couldn't help but burst into fits of laughter. Despite the culinary mishap, everyone rallied together, ordering takeout and turning the night into an impromptu pizza party. It became a memorable evening of laughter, friendship, and unexpected culinary adventures.

Today a 'nest-egg' is a sum of money safely put away as a reserve. When the term was first recorded early in the seventeenth century it described a sum of money set aside as an encouragement to save further money. This earlier meaning is an allusion to the practice of placing an egg, even an artificial egg, in a hen's nest to encourage her to lay others.

ALL THE FINERY the bride wore was a rough wooden chest, yet she lived happily ever after. On February 22, 1789, Major Moses Joy of Putney, Vermont, married Hannah, the widow of William Ward. The marriage took place in the Field Mansion at Newfane, Vermont, and the Rev. Hezekiah Taylor was the officiating minister. The blushing bride was completely unclothed, except for a rough wooden box completely enclosing her form. The receptacle was open at the top and there was an aperture in the side to accommodate her naked arm for the ring ceremony. The law of the period rendered a second husband answerable for all the liabilities of his predecessor if the widow wore any clothing at all during the ceremony.

The obituary editor of a Boston newspaper was not one who would admit his mistakes easily. One day, he got a phone call from an irate subscriber who complained that his name just appeared in the obituary column. "Really?" was the calm reply. "Where are you calling from?"

A hundred times every day I remind myself that my inner and outer life depend on the labours of other men, living and dead, and that I must exert myself in order to give in the same measure as I have received.

WHY IS ONE BAPTIZED IN WATER?

Every time you read of baptism in the New Testament it was always an immersion in water in order to receive the remission of sins. Why is one baptized in water?

- To obey the Lord (Acts 10:48; Mark 16:16).
- To be united with the Lord (Rom. 6:3-6; Gal. 3:27).
- In order to become a child of God (John 3:3-7; Rom. 16:18).
- In order to become a new creature (2 Cor. 5:17; Rom. 6:3-4).
- In order to be saved/forgiven from sins (Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; Acts 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21).
- In order to contact Jesus' blood (Rev. 1:5; Eph. 1:7; Rom. 6:3-6; Acts 22:16).
- In order to enter the kingdom / church (John 3:3-5; Acts 2:41,47; Eph. 5:23; 1 Cor. 12:13).
- In order to be put into Christ (Rom. 6:3; Gal. 3:27).
- In order to bury the old man of sin (Rom. 6:6).
- In baptism God circumcises and takes away our sins (Col. 2:11-12).
- In baptism God performs an operation on a sinner to remove their sins (Col. 2:12).

What follows water baptism?

- We walk a new life (Rom. 6:4).
- We are a member of the one body, the church (John 3:3-5).
- We worship God faithfully (Acts 2:42; 1 Cor. 11:23-26).
- Satan will try to draw us away (1 Peter 5:8; Acts 5:3).
- We seek those things that are above (Col. 3:1-3; 2:12).

HUSBAND

As the husband is, the wife is.

THE MAN LOOKED a bit worried when the doctor came in to administer his annual physical, so the first thing the doctor did was ask if anything was troubling him.

"Well, to tell the truth, doc, yes," the patient answered. "You see, I seem to be getting forgetful. No, it's actually worse than that. I'm never sure I can remember where I put the car, or whether I answered a letter, or where I'm going, or what it is I'm going to do once I get there - if I even get there. What can I do?"

The doctor thought for a moment, then answered in his kindest tone, "Pay me in advance."

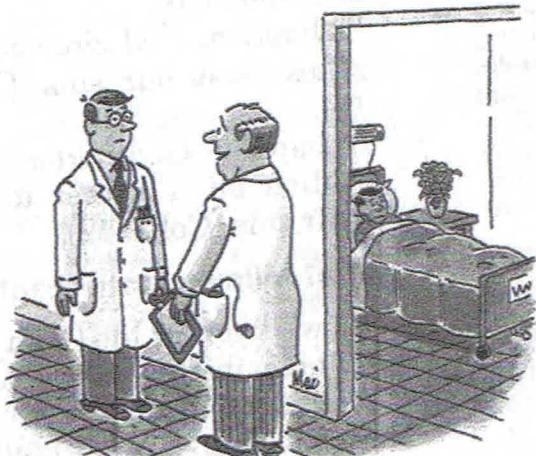

A MAN IS GIVING a speech at his lodge meeting. He gets carried away and talks for two hours. Finally, he realizes what he's done and says, "I'm sorry I talked so long. I left my watch at home."

At the back of the room, someone shouts, "That's no excuse. There's a calendar behind you."

A YOUNG BOY was playing baseball by himself. "I'm the greatest hitter in the world," he said. Then he tossed the ball into the air, swung at it and missed. "Strike one!" he yelled.

He tossed the ball into the air again. When it came down, he swung and missed. "Strike two!"

Again he tossed the ball up in the air, swung, and missed. "Strike three!" Then, thinking, he exclaimed, "Wow! I'm the greatest pitcher in the world!"

"We caught him just in time. In another day or two he would have been cured by himself."

"I did it to pay Paul."

"My door is always open, Matthews, but only to those who stand in awe."

MY GOAL IN LIFE is to be the kind of person my dog thinks I am.

AFTER A YOUNG COUPLE brought their new baby home, the wife suggested her husband try his hand at changing diapers.

"I'm busy," he said. "I'll do the next one." The next time came around and she asked again. The husband looked puzzled. "I didn't mean the next diaper," he said. "I meant the next baby."
